1. [REDACTED] advised me that the Director is relaxed about the East Building situation but emphasized, of course, that we should make every precaution to ensure access to the building.

2. Walt was also interested in the air conditioning and ceiling changes in the Director's office but was concerned about the cost. I told him that the Office of Logistics was forwarding a paper on this, and as soon as I received it I would be in touch with him.

3. [REDACTED] called to recommend that we put on a display in the Director's Conference Room of the agent-type transmitter and receiver which the Office of Communications has developed. I agreed to speak to Kirk about this.

5. I met with [REDACTED] to discuss space. We agreed that it would appear to be advisable to move all of the Office of Training, including the classrooms and excepting the language laboratory, to the Broyhill Building. I later checked this out with Mr. Kirkpatrick, who approved. (I have instructed [REDACTED] and OTR to proceed accordingly.)

believed it might be possible to use a classroom in the building as a staging area and avoid moving to Quarters Eye and then to the Broyhill Building later.

[REDACTED] and that it appeared likely that we would have to move the A&E Staff about 1 August 1963. I agreed that we would not publicize the A&E Staff move at this time.

7. Shef Edwards advised me that [REDACTED] had addressed an appeal to Larry Houston which Larry had forwarded to General Carter through Mr. Kirkpatrick. In case it should arise, Shef recommended and I strongly concurred, that we should not change our previous condition, i.e., either [REDACTED] resigns or he will be terminated under the Director's authority. 25X1A9a

8. I confirmed with Shef Edwards that he plans to retire at the end of June 1963.

9. I had another rather philosophical talk with Dr. Tietjen about [REDACTED] 25X1A9a
[REDACTED] I do not think that it is going to be possible for us to meet [REDACTED] 25X1A9a demands for recognition and reward, and we will probably lose him eventually-- 25X1A9a
I hope on friendly terms and in such a way that we can continue to use his services. However, in view of the hassle we went through at the time of Dr. [REDACTED] departure, I agreed to try to arrange a meeting with General Carter and Mr. Kirkpatrick to brief them on the possibilities which we face. 25X1A9a

10. I met briefly with Dr. Tietjen and [REDACTED] to present to [REDACTED] his copy of the personnel action promoting him to grade GS-16. 25X1A9a
